TOUCH COMPETITION

Last week Whaea Anet took 13 Year 5 and Year 6 students to a touch competition at Weymouth Primary School. The weather was glorious! We had some excellent games where many tries were scored. We even mixed up the teams and played a boys v girls game. These are some of the comments students made afterwards.

We played well. We got 2 tries. Faanimo

We got stepped, but we still played well. Robert

I got my first try from dummy half. Peni

We lost but we tried our best. Lance

We had fun at the game. Tohmy

I tripped in the middle of the field but I still passed the ball to Angeline. Temeinga

I ran straight. The girls were fast at dummy half. I scored 2 tries. Terangi

The mixed game was challenging but we won against the boys. Esilovina

The girls did their best and scored lots of tries. Ruby

I am good at faking passes. Lisa

I am not good at listening. Leeroy

The game was tiring in the heat. Angeline

It was hard playing Weymouth because they had speed but we still tried to catch them. Christian
